Drabble.

Joey, though not physically here for laundry day, shows in other ways his presence.

Cross-post on A03.

"Glad Joey's not here to see this."

Johnny grumbled as he took out the load from the dryer. It was a disaster. The clothes stuck due to the static, and worse, they weren't even white anymore.

The culprit: the lavender sweater.

He had never been so careless, especially to someone who was not him. As for the sweater, the lavender had faded to white, in various areas, though at least the fabric wouldn't fit as baggy the next time he wore the thing. His underwear, shirts, and socks, on the other hand...

They would bear the reminder of Joey Ramone.
